Segall Bryant & Hamill Adds Senior Sales Position

Chicago, IL, July 22nd, 2013 - Segall Bryant & Hamill, a Chicago based investment management firm with $9.2 billion in assets under management, is pleased to announce that Robin Fujimoto has joined our sales team. With her extensive background and experience, Robin is an exceptional addition to our sales team and will prove instrumental to the future success of our firm. She will be covering institutional clients, registered investment advisors and family offices in the western United States. The western U.S. has been a large area of growth for the firm and she will fill the void as a permanent presence.

Prior to joining Segall Bryant & Hamill, Robin was a Senior Managing Director at Third Avenue Management since 1994. Robin will report directly to Mark Rewey, Segall Bryant & Hamill Managing Director and Director of Marketing, and will work out of Los Angeles.

Segall Bryant & Hamill is an independent, employee-owned, investment management firm providing management of both equity and fixed income investments for institutional and private clients. For more information on the firm, please contact Mark W. Rewey, Director of Marketing at 312-474-4118 or via email at mrewey@sbhic.com.
