Segall Bryant & Hamill Global Large Cap Fund (WTMVX – retail class) also placed within the Best International Stock Funds category. The Fund invests in well-established companies, both in the U.S. and developed foreign markets, with the potential to grow their dividend streams and deliver consistent returns on capital over a full market cycle.

Segall Bryant & Hamill Quality High Yield Fund (WTLTX – retail class) was recognized within Best U.S. Taxable Bond Funds (203 winners of 832 funds analyzed). The Fund invests in high yield securities that meet our standards for high quality with the goal of providing attractive yield while emphasizing capital preservation.

“At a time when active management is under siege, we are very pleased to have the SBH Funds be recognized by IBD for our diverse array of investment strategies,” said Phil Hildebrandt, Chief Executive Officer. “This award reflects our commitment to delivering competitive, actively managed funds across a multitude of asset classes.”

This year's Best Mutual Funds Award winners were drawn from a universe of 3,374 mutual funds in operation for at least 10 years. In 2020, 691 funds beat their performance benchmark across all four periods evaluated, compared to 357 in 2019. Of the 1,323 U.S. diversified stock mutual funds evaluated, only 139 outperformed the S&P 500 Index in all four time periods. Funds are ranked according to their 10-year performance.

An investment in the Funds involves risk, including possible loss of principal.

Foreign Investment and Emerging Markets Risk: Foreign investments can be riskier than U.S. investments. Potential risks include adverse political and legal developments affecting issuers located and/or doing business in foreign countries, currency risk that may result from unfavorable exchange rates, liquidity risk if decreased demand for a security makes it difficult to sell at the desired price, and risks that stem from substantially lower trading volume on foreign markets. These risks are generally greater for investments in emerging markets, which are also subject to greater price volatility, and custodial and regulatory risks.

Micro-, Small- and Medium-Sized Company Risk: Investing in the securities of micro-, small- and medium-sized companies generally will be more volatile, and loss of principal could be greater than investing in the securities of larger, more established companies.

Fixed Income Risks: Fixed income funds` are subject to additional risk in that they may invest in high yield/high-risk bonds and may be subject to greater levels of liquidity risk. Additionally, investing in bonds entails interest rate risk and credit risk. In general, as prevailing interest rates rise, fixed income securities prices will fall.
